TARWF PRESIDENT'S LETTER SEPTEMBER 2020

Welcoming Fall this year is certainly filled with anticipation of a new year without the Covid-19 virus. We have been challenged in ways we would never have thought possible, but as strong Republican Women we have risen to each obstacle and prevailed. Going into this November we will follow our courageous President's example and help him win another term.

President Trump has kept each campaign promise he made and went even beyond, each with little credit in the media. He has stood up to his worst critics and prevailed. He has pushed on when most would have reached their limits and given up. We must all know in our hearts that recorded history will determine that he is one of the greatest negotiators, courageous Commanders-in-Chief and great American Patriots.

The National Federation of Republican Women has been a great cheerleader for all our national Candidates and the California Federation of Republican Women our state and local candidates. You have been working for our local races and this is what the President needs. He cannot continue to nominate great judges, and get them confirmed without a Senate, and hopefully take back the House of Representatives too. Here locally we can help chip away at the supermajority the Democrats have in Sacramento and defeat bad Propositions on our ballot.

We have, and will continue to, advise you on how to best secure your ballot in this upcoming election. Our Past President and advisor, Linda Barcelona, has prepared an advisory for you to use as a guide to share with friends and family who want to protect their vote. She has a program planned for our September 25th luncheon meeting at the Elks Lodge, about the November election and a chance to meet the candidates running in Tustin.

Things may look and feel different today, but Americans are forward looking and optimistic! Thank you TARWF sisters for hanging strong with us and for all your hard work and prayers. We look forward to seeing you soon.

God Bless you all.

Judy Levine and Pat Micone, Co-Presidents

CAMPAIGN / VOTER REGISTRATION REPORT

CALLING ALL TARWF PATRIOTS:

The 2020 Republican National Convention was INCREDIBLE AND INSPIRATIONAL. We need that inspiration to motivate TARWF patriots to get involved directly with the following Congressional District Campaigns:

Young Kim for Congress

Chris Walsh CWalsh@gop.com

Greg Raths for Congress

Brian Maryott for Congress

Pat Bush Pat@MaryottforCongress.com

According to CFRW (California Federated Republican Women) we need 17 seats to flip the U.S. Congressional House back to Republican. ORANGE COUNTY is home to 4 of those seats. Let's WORK HARD take back those 4 seats that OC lost in 2018 midterm elections. WE CAN TAKE BACK THESE SEATS!

You can also get involved and volunteer directly by contacting the State Senate Campaign Managers as follows:

John Moorlach for Senate
Ryan May RyanMay1999@gmail.com

Diane Dixon for Senate
Caleb Wood Peterson CWoodPeterson@DianeDixonAssembly2020.com

Alternately, an easy way to support these candidates would be to sign up for phone banking through GOP Campaign Sidekick. Watch for emails to our club from Kristin Manna/Ryan May to volunteer. Kristin can help with any questions you may have regarding Campaign Sidekick. You can show your support by requesting a yard sign for your home and/or candidate literature which can be delivered to you. You can also pick up yard signs and candidate literature at the OCGOP offices in Tustin.

OCGOP Campaign Office
1422 Edinger Ave, Suite 110
Tustin, CA 92780
Tel: (714) 453-0900

OC Voter Guides are scheduled to go out after September 24th and Ballots are scheduled to go out starting October 3rd. If you need voter registration forms for any reason contact Carlene Cunningham. There will also be voter registration forms available at our next general meeting on Friday, September 25th.

Tustin Tiller Days scheduled for October 2, 3, & 4, 2020 will not be held in normal form. There will be some entertainment scheduled but no booths will be set up for our usual voter registration/information.

You can go to RecallGavin2020.com and print out a recall petition. There is information on how to fill out the petition and an address where it can be returned. If you haven't signed yet, check it out. We have until November 17th.

Justice is getting what you deserve without favor. Social Justice is getting what you don't deserve because you are favored. Vote NO on Proposition 16 (Affirmative Action).

On September 17, 1787 the U.S. Constitution was ratified. Each September 17th we celebrate the creation of that great document that begins with "We the people." Take a moment to reflect and have gratitude for our Founding Fathers and their dedication in building the framework of the United States of America.

GO FORTH AND BE BOLD!

From Linda Barcelona: Important Voting Information

At one time, not so long ago, Democrats hated the idea of Californians voting by mail! Beginning in the 1960's, an application to vote by Absentee Ballot had to be made for each election. Originally utilized by business travelers and the military, the Absentee Ballot was thought to be mostly beneficial to Republican Voters. As time went by, the Absentee Ballot became more and more popular with voters for the convenience factor and an option to vote by Absentee Ballot permanently was added to the Voter Registration form.

A few of our members have had questions regarding voting by mail in our upcoming election. This is a brief summary of our voting procedures here in Orange County which I hope will give you a little more confidence. As with our Primary Election in March, every registered voter in Orange County will receive a ballot in the mail and will have a choice of ways to cast that ballot. There is no longer an "absentee ballot" available in Orange County and you are not required to request one.

Once received, you can vote with that ballot from home and return it to a voting center, or you can return it to a ballot collection box or return it directly to the Registrar's office. Or you can vote in person at a voting center (this is my preferred option, but then please destroy the paper ballot!) As we have recommended for many years and especially true this year, DO NOT RETURN YOUR BALLOT BY MAIL! We will have members available to help you get to a voting center or return your ballot without using the mail! At this point in time, Orange County is moving forward to have our in person voting centers open for our use!

Here are a few important dates to be aware of:

--Voter information guides will be mailed to registered voters beginning September 24th.

--Ballots will be mailed to registered voters beginning October 3rd.

--Voting Centers for early in person voting open beginning October 5th, early voting ends November 2nd.

--The last day to register to vote by mail is October 19th; however.....voters can register and vote provisionally up to and on November 3rd.

--Election Day is November 3rd.

Also, the lobby of our Registrar's office is open and available for you to visit. That office is in the County Services complex at 1300 So Grand Ave, Santa Ana, at the corner of Mc Fadden Ave and Grand Ave.

What do our members need to do now? If you have not done so recently, you can check and confirm your voter registration!

To check and verify your voter registration:

-Go to OCVOTE.com

-Now on the Registration page, go to the box on the right of the page, VOTER LOOK UP TOOL and click the yellow button—LOOK UP

-Insert your voter information as requested, your birth date like this, mm/dd/year, and then the last 4 digits of EITHER your driver's license OR social security number*

-Click the blue button—SUBMIT

*Please note if your registration is not found with your driver's license number, then try your social security number, or visa versa. The verification will depend on which number you used as identification when you originally filled out the Voter Registration Form.

Once you have confirmed your registration, you will see this page:

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL <https://www.ocvote.com/vit/>. The page has three main sections: "Registration Info", "My Voter Info", and "Confirm Your Registration", each with a blue downward arrow. Below these is a text box with instructions: "Enter your first and last name to confirm you are still registered at this address, and would like to remain registered to vote. If you received a green postcard, you may use this form to confirm your address is correct and you would like to remain an active voter in Orange County." A text input field labeled "Name:" contains the word "Barcelona". Below the input field is a blue button labeled "Confirm". At the bottom of the page, there is a footer for "Neal Kelley · Orange County Registrar of Voters" and a Windows taskbar showing the date as 8/16/2020 and the time as 12:20 PM.

-----Click-the-Blue-button--Confirm¶

-Go to the last option to Confirm Your Registration and click the Blue arrow.

-Click the Blue button –Confirm

You have now confirmed that the address that appears is the correct address for your Voter Guide and Ballot to be sent to you. A postcard will be sent to the address that you confirmed to verify this confirmation.

If your correct address does not appear, please contact one of your TARWF officers to re-register to Vote.

One more thing, if you think that your signature has changed appreciably since you registered to vote, you may want to consider re-registering or updating your signature with the Registrar's office. Paper ballots are verified with your signature on the registration form and/or your signature on your driver's license.

On OCVOTE.com you will also be able to track your ballot, find the location of your closest voting center and even watch the ballots being counted on election night.

We will talk more about voting procedures at our next Meeting on September 25th! See you then!

To answer all of those who would say: "I can't believe you would vote for Trump." Well folks listen up! I'm not just voting for him.

I'm voting for the second Amendment.

I'm voting for the next supreme court justice.

I'm voting for the electoral college, and the Republic we live in.

I'm voting for the Police and law and order.

I'm voting for the military, and the veterans who fought for and died for this Country.

I'm voting for the Flag that is always missing from the Democratic background.

I'm voting for the right to speak my opinion and not be censored.

I'm voting for secure borders.

I'm voting for the right to praise my God without fear.

I'm voting for every unborn soul the Democrats want to murder.

I'm voting for freedom and the American Dream.

I'm voting for good and against evil.

I'm not just voting for one person, I'm voting for the future of my Country!

What are you voting for?

We received a call from Ann Volpe kindly letting us know her sister Lorraine Volpe passed away Tuesday September 8th after struggling for many years with a chronic illness.

These two loving and devoted sisters joined our club in 2014 or 2015 and then chose to quit in 2018 due to Lorraine's failing health. Ann was also recovering from breast cancer surgery, so they had their hands full.

Ann is requesting we place a brief announcement in our Newsletter, so people who knew them will know of her passing and lift her in prayer.

There will not be a service until they fly to NY in 2021 ...God Willing.

Thank you everyone for your kindness, prayers and friendship to my sister and I over the past few years since we relocated to Southern CA from NY.

The United States of Appeasement

By Robin M. Itzler

The problem with appeasement is that you can never truly appease.

A famous example of naïveté occurred on September 30, 1938. British prime minister Neville Chamberlain returned home waving a worthless paper signed by Hitler. Placating the Führer by giving Germany the Sudetenland, Chamberlain happily announced to the world, "Peace in our time." Less than one year later, Hitler invaded Poland, and that was the start of World War II. So much for peace for anyone's time.

Once they see how easy it is to get what they want, their list of demands only grows longer. As Winston Churchill said, "an appeaser is one who feeds a crocodile, hoping it will eat him last."

Who are they? For America, it's everyone who hates President Donald Trump and his loyal supporters. · Increasingly irrelevant people — Colin Powell, Mitt Romney, Jennifer Rubin, Meghan McCain, and Bill Kristol. Democratic Party leaders — Senate minority leader Chuck Schumer, House speaker Nancy Pelosi, Rep. Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez and Georgia (governor in her own mind) Stacey Abrams. · Leaders of large and small groups that say, "Orange man bad."

They want Confederate statues smashed into oblivion and military bases that were named after Confederate generals to be renamed. However, these statues and military bases have been around a long time — just like House speaker Nancy Pelosi, who has served in Congress since 1987.

Let's say Fort Benning, named after Confederate brigadier general Henry L. Benning, is rechristened. However, it's located in Columbus, Georgia. Would they want the city renamed, too? After all, they hate Christopher Columbus as much as they hate Henry Benning.

Appeasers always think that if they do "just this one thing," they will be happy, but it rarely works out that way. Once Confederate statues are removed, military bases renamed, and cities and states named Columbus given new monikers, there will still be more to appease

For instance, they might focus on Camp Sherman in Ohio, which has operated since World War I. It is named after famous Ohioan and Union Civil War General William Tecumseh Sherman, who helped the Union win the war. But they do not like Sherman because Sherman didn't like black people. During the Atlanta campaign (better known as Sherman's March to the Sea), the general issued notorious Special Field Order No. 16, which forbade the enlistment of black soldiers. Sherman detested the idea that free-born blacks from the North or newly freed blacks from the South would fight side-by-side with his white armies. He was so adamant about keeping the races separate and using blacks only as laborers that he threatened recruiters with arrest and imprisonment if they enlisted blacks. They would denounce Gen. Sherman as a racist (which he was) and insist that the camp be renamed after someone they admire. (Che Guevara? Nicolás Maduro? Fidel Castro? Josef Stalin?)

Rather than destroy America's past, perhaps the answer is to let these statues and forts educate. Two respected black leaders agree:

· Veteran and former U.S. rep. Col. Allen West — "History is about learning from it. I don't want to see us become like the Taliban or ISIS. Those are the people [who] destroyed history."

· Secretary of the Department of Housing and Urban Development Dr. Ben Carson — "We need to move away from being offended by everything, of going through history and looking at everything, of renaming everything. We're going to have to grow up as a society."

As Spanish-American philosopher and author George Santayana pithily observed, "those who cannot remember the past are condemned to repeat it."

But wait, there would be more appeasement!

Starting with George Washington, beloved Father of our Country and America's first president, there are now calls to get rid of statues and memorials and rename streets and cities for all slave-owning Founding Fathers. These men risked their fortunes and lives to declare America's independence from Great Britain. The Washington Monument might become the Monument Formerly Known as Washington.

Thomas Jefferson, our nation's third president and principal author of the Declaration of Independence, wouldn't fare much better, as he was a slaveholder, too. Some critics claim that if whatever you are declaring can't be written in a 280-character tweet, it was probably too long to read anyway. Would that be the end of appeasement mania? Of course not!

President Abraham Lincoln, our esteemed 16th and first Republican president, wouldn't have a chance in the Court of Popular Appeasement. In a George Soros world, only Democrats can have views that evolve. Although President Lincoln freed some of the slaves during the Civil War by issuing the Emancipation Proclamation and wanted them to join American society following the war, his earlier views would take precedence. They would reach back to September 18, 1858 in his fourth debate with Stephen Douglas, when Lincoln said, "I will say then that I am not, nor ever have been, in favor of bringing about in any way the social and political equality of the white and black races." Lincoln went on to share that he was also opposed to blacks having the right to vote, serve on juries, hold office, or intermarry with whites. They would close the Lincoln Memorial, topple statues, and rename streets and cities. Would that be enough to appease them? Of course not!

President Franklin Roosevelt would have to go, too. On February 19, 1942, President Roosevelt signed infamous Executive Order 9066 that forcibly removed Americans of Japanese descent from their homes and sent them to internment camps. Think of all the bridges, libraries, schools, museums, roads, and parks named after our 32nd president that would have to be changed. Or maybe it would be cheaper to chisel out the name "Franklin" and replace it with "Theodore," our 26th president.

However, they probably hate Theodore Roosevelt, too. An avid sport hunter, T.R.'s homes were adorned with small and big game trophies from his many hunting expeditions.

Should Teddy Roosevelt, as well as George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, and Abraham Lincoln, be chiseled off Mount Rushmore to appease everyone? Who, if anyone, would those seeking absolute purity accept in the place of the four undisputed great U.S. presidents?

President John F. Kennedy would likely be erased from history. A conservative by today's standards, JFK lowered corporate tax rates ("A rising tide lifts all the boats") and hated communism ("The enemy is the Communist system itself — implacable, insatiable, unceasing in its drive for world domination"). Moreover, Kennedy had the audacity to approve the Bay of Pigs invasion, where he backed Cuban rebels in their attempt to remove communist Fidel Castro. JFK increased the defense budget by 20 percent and escalated America's involvement in the Vietnam War. However, his biggest sin to today's liberals might be that he didn't fully embrace the civil rights movement.

Once all the statues are toppled

When there are no more statues to destroy, no more government institutions to rechristen, no more streets and cities to rename they will focus on entertainment. Songs, television shows, and films that they don't like would be gone with the wind. And movies or programs that show law enforcement in a good light — fuhgeddaboutit! (Better start taping Law & Order episodes.) Would that be done now? Of course not!

Offices, schools, and homes would feature safe spaces to prevent anyone anywhere at any time from being offended by anything. The only exception would be free rein to offend conservatives.

History is not erasable and should not be sanitized. Once Democrat-supported appeasement is permanently embedded and used to cancel culture and promote political correctness, it will continue even after they decide that Democrats must go, too.

ANALYSIS/OPINION

By L. Todd Wood

I know of no white person alive today in the United States who has ever legally owned a black slave, or any slave for that matter. Almost 700,000 mostly white men died 160 years ago to end slavery. Jim Crow ended generations ago. Yet black America, for the most part, is still locked in inner-city gang violence and economic hardship. Why?

Is it because America is racist? Is it because of some overhanging white supremacy? Is it because of the Illuminati?

No, unfortunately, it is because of black culture and the adoption of Democratic Party government dependency.

We have just had eight years of the first black president. Black athletes and entertainers routinely earn multi-million dollar incomes. I can easily name several black billionaires without even trying too hard. A large percentage of black America is very successful. But, it is not enough. Too many black youth are being left behind. And, it is no one but black America's fault. No one can solve this problem but black America. No one can throw enough money at it. We've tried that. Black America needs to look in the mirror and stop blaming others, especially white people.

I am obviously white and conservative and I served in the military, which, during my time, was as color blind as you could be. I can also honestly say I don't give a damn what color your skin is and neither do any of my friends. I do care about your actions.

Blacks are around 15 percent of the population. Depending on what study you look at, they commit around 40 percent to 50 percent of violent crime in America which means there is going to be a problem with police. And, of course, there are some bad policemen. However, those bad apples do not kill black people statistically anymore than they kill white people. Even Harvard said that same thing recently. If you were a cop, and you had to work in a neighborhood infested with crime and murder, wouldn't you act differently than in a neighborhood where there was little crime? The most effective thing black America could do to improve its relationship with police is to significantly reduce violent crime where they live. Yes, that means change the culture of where you live and your community.

I for one am tired of being blamed. I am tired of dealing with people who only want something from others. I don't oppress anyone. I don't hold anyone down. I'm tired of getting on the D.C. metro and seeing white people being harassed by roaming gangs of black youth with their pants around their knees. It's our nation's capital and it's embarrassing.

Blacks have nothing but opportunity in America. Try finding the same opportunity anywhere else in the world. If you are born in America you've won life's economic lottery. Take advantage of it.

The problem is this generation has been taught an agenda of cultural Marxism by our education system. They've been taught to be a victim and it's still going on. All you have to do is watch the young black, female student at Yale screaming at the college president to understand that. Blacks in America don't even know how good they've got it.

Don't kneel when my anthem is played. Too many people died for that flag. You are free to protest but not then. I am free to not watch, or pay to watch, you play if you do that. The NFL should make it a rule that you stand for the national anthem. There is no free speech to disobey a private employer on private property. This would solve the problem immediately. The NFL has deeply offended most of America. They will pay an economic and reputational price, as they should.

We have a real cultural problem in this country, the result of the Leftist multicultural agenda. Multi-ethnicity is perfect and should be encouraged. Having more than one American culture is destroying the country. But then again, that is what the Left wants.

At 55, drafted the Kentucky Resolutions and became the active head of the Democratic-Republican Party.

At 57, was elected the third president of the United States.

At 60, obtained the Louisiana Purchase, doubling the nation's size.

At 61, was elected to a second term as President.

At 65, retired to Monticello.

At 80, helped President Monroe shape the Monroe Doctrine.

At 81, almost single-handedly, created the University of Virginia and served as its first president.

At 83, died on the 50th Anniversary of the Signing of the Declaration of Independence, along with John Adams.

Thomas Jefferson knew because he himself studied, the previous failed attempts at government. He understood actual history, the nature of God, His laws and the nature of man. That happens to be way more than what most understand today.

Jefferson really knew his stuff...A voice from the past to lead us in the future:

John F. Kennedy held a dinner in the White House for a group of the brightest minds in the nation at that time. He made this statement:
"This is perhaps the assembly of the most intelligence ever to gather at one time in the White House, with the exception of when Thomas Jefferson dined alone"

"When we get piled upon one another in large cities, as in Europe, we shall become as corrupt as Europe." Thomas Jefferson

"The democracy will cease to exist when you take away from those who are willing to work and give to those who would not." Thomas Jefferson

"It is incumbent on every generation to pay its own debts as it goes. A principle which if acted on, would save one-half the wars of the world." Thomas Jefferson

"I predict future happiness for Americans if they can prevent the government from wasting the labors of the people, under the pretense of taking care of them." Thomas Jefferson

"My reading of history convinces me that most bad government results from too much government." Thomas Jefferson

"No free man shall ever be debarred the use of arms." Thomas Jefferson

"The strongest reason for the people to retain the right to keep and bear arms is, as a last resort, to protect themselves against tyranny in government." Thomas Jefferson

"The tree of liberty must be refreshed from time to time with the blood of patriots and tyrants." Thomas Jefferson

"To compel a man to subsidize with his taxes, the propagation of ideas which he disbelieves and abhors, is sinful and tyrannical." Thomas Jefferson
